

Robert MacKay

Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee Volunteer of the Month January 2019

Robert MacKay volunteers in support of several different causes in the community whether it's a fundraiser, a breakfast, or simply helping others. He has also spent many hours cleaning up the carpool parking area along Hwy 103. Robert MacKay serves on the MacKay Trust, which supports Our House Youth Centre. He has volunteered at Roseway Manor with the Friendship Singers for 41 years. Along with his musical volunteer work, he helps seniors in the community with daily chores. Robert is an active member of his church, helping with events and is acting organist. Robert has sat on many boards and committees over the years as well, including the Shelburne Exhibition.

For all that he does to support our community, the Town of Shelburne Community Participation & Volunteerism Committee recognizes Robert MacKay as Volunteer of the Month for January 2019.
