June 2019

Wally Buchanan has been volunteering in the Town of Shelburne for many years. He has given his time to many organizations through fundraisers, book keeping and other tasks. Wally has volunteered with the Shelburne County Arena, the Anglican Church, the Genealogical Society, and more.

Wally has volunteered for over 20 years with the Genealogical Society, putting in hours of research and serving as President. Most recently, Wally was instrumental in compiling the names and facts about the individuals who are buried in a mass grave in Pine Grove Cemetery from the Alms House. He gave dignity to 75 souls, long after their deaths, ensuring that their names were placed on a memorial monument.

For his efforts in volunteering and preserving the history of the Town of Shelburne, the CP & V Committee recognizes Wally Buchanan as Volunteer of the Month for June 2019.
