Community Participation &
Volunteerism Committee
Volunteers of the Month
July 2019

David Burbine volunteers generously both in Shelburne and the surrounding areas. He regularly performs traditional country music for the residents of Roseway Manor and Surf Lodge. He also travels to over 9 other seniors' homes to perform from Yarmouth to Bridgewater.

David also volunteers to help raise funds for various community groups through music. He has been recognized by the Nova Scotia House of Assembly, the NS Country Music Hall of Fame, the Hank Snow Museum, and the Shriner's 100 Million Dollar Club for his efforts.

David says that he never had much money so he gave his time and music instead. "Everyone has something to offer, just find someone who needs help and commit yourself to it. You get to have fun and meet so many great people. Today you help others, tomorrow you may need help yourself."

For his efforts in volunteering with his gift of music, the CP & V Committee recognizes David Burbine as Volunteer of the Month for July 2019.
